The Deadline for the next
Lion Times is Tuesday,
11/6/18 at 3:00 pm

Dear LCE Families,

November finds us still busy here at LCE before we break for Thanksgiving later in the month. This Friday is our Father/Daughter dance when the cafeteria will be transformed into a Luau themed wonderland for our dads and their daughters.

Also, this week is Parent Teacher conferences. Tuesday through Friday our 1-6 grade is on a minimum day schedule from 8:10-11:35am, while TK and Kindergarten remain on their regular schedules.

November 13-16 is a new Fall Mini Book Fair that will take place in the Library. There are more details below on the event, and we thank our chairs Christina Conwell, Audrey Huang and Debra Barsom in advance for their work on setting this up.

That same week on Wednesday the 14th, the LCFEF Jog-A-Thon will take place during your child's PE time. If you haven't registered your child yet, please click here to do so.

On Friday, November 16th our 5th graders will continue the LCE tradition of celebrating their very own Thanksgiving Feast in the cafeteria.

Remember, Monday, November 12 there is no school due to the Veterans Day holiday.

I'm anxiously awaiting fall!

Best,
Karyn Perez
LCE PTA President

Each year, the LCE PTA has the opportunity to recognize and appreciate five people whose efforts and achievements, prove themselves true advocates for our children. Their ongoing dedication and hard work seek no reward, which is the best reason of all to highlight them!
